(3) The application for rectification shall be presented in Form LRA 94 set out in the Sixth Schedule and be accompanied by a copy of the order that is certified by the Court.

PART XVI—ADDRESS FOR SERVICE AND NOTICES

95.(1) A person having an interest in any land shall, at the time of registration or such other time as the Registrar may specify, furnish the Registrar with their address for service in Kenya to which all notices and other communication may be sent.

Detail of address of service

(2) The person referred to in paragraph (1) may be—

- (a) a registered proprietor of an interest in land;
- (b) a registered beneficiary of a unilateral notice;
- (c) a cautioner;
- (d) a person whose consent or certificate is required for any instrument or disposition, or upon whom notice is required to be served by the Registrar; or
- (e) any other person under any order or restriction.

(3) The address for service referred to in paragraph (1) shall contain—

- (a) a postal address, whether or not in Kenya;
- (b) subject to paragraph (7), where applicable, a post office box number in Kenya document exchange; and
- (c) an electronic address of a person referred to in paragraph (2).

(4) Subject to paragraph (3), a person to whom paragraph (1) applies may give the Registrar a replacement address for service.

(5) In this regulation an electronic address means—

- (a) an e-mail address, or
- (b) any other the prescribed form of electronic address specified in a direction under paragraph (6).

(6) If the Registrar is satisfied that a form of electronic address, other than an e-mail address, is the suitable form of address for service he may issue a direction to that effect.

(7) A direction under paragraph (6) may contain such conditions or limitations or both, as the Registrar considers appropriate.

96.(1) All notices which the Registrar is required to issue may be served—

Mode of service of notices by the Registrar

- (a) by post, to any postal address in Kenya entered in the register as an address for service;
- (b) by post, to any postal address outside Kenya entered in the register as an address for service;
- (c) by electronic transmission to the electronic address entered in the register as an address for service;
- (d) by hand delivery through the National or County Government administration officers within the area of their jurisdiction; or
- (e) by any of the methods of service given in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) to any other address where the Registrar believes the addressee is likely to receive it.

(2) The service of a notice under paragraph (1) shall be regarded as having taken place if—

- (a) for service under paragraph (1)(a), the notice is served within seven working day after being posted;
- (b) for service under paragraph (1)(c), the notice is served within the same day that it was posted;
- (c) for service under paragraph (1)(b), the notice is served within fourteen working day after being posted; and
- (d) for service to an electronic address, the notice is served within two working day after being transmitted.

(3) In this regulation—

“post” means pre-paid delivery by a postal service, for delivery of documents within Kenya or outside Kenya as necessary; and

“working day” means any day from Monday to Friday (both days inclusive) between 6.00 a.m. and 6.00 p.m. unless that day declared to be a holiday under the Public Holidays Act.

PART XV—MISCELLANEOUS

97.(1) No fees shall be payable for the registration of any instrument in respect of any dealing in favour of the National Government, County Government, National or County Government department or agency, public body or in respect of any application, notice, caution or search made, given or presented, by or on behalf of any of those persons or, where they are required for official purposes or for the issue of any copy, to any public officer. Fees

(2) Where a parcel is identified by reference to more than one sheet of the cadastral map, the sheets required to identify that parcel shall, for the purposes of the payment of any fees, be deemed to be one sheet only.

98. Where any fees are payable based on the value and no consideration is expressed in the instrument, the value for the purposes of assessing stamp duty shall be the estimated market value of the property. Assessment of fees

99.(1) The fees payable for the registration of any instrument shall be by the methods specified in regulation 36. Payment of fees

(2) The Registrar shall impress, on all instruments and on all copies thereof presented for registration, a stamp recording the date of presentation, and such impression shall, in the absence of fraud, be conclusive evidence of the date of presentation and that the fees stated in the instrument have been paid.

(3) Unless the Registrar authorizes otherwise, fees in all cases, shall be paid through a designated bank account and a receipt of the amount paid shall be issued to the payee.

(4) Where any fees are payable for the services of the Registrar or of the authority responsible for land survey cannot be assessed until the service required by an application has been completed, the Registrar may require the applicant to deposit with the Registrar such sum not exceeding the maximum amount of the prescribed fee as the Registrar may determine, and he may decline the application until such deposit has been made.

(5) No fees paid to the Registrar in accordance with these Regulations shall be refunded except by order of the Principal Secretary.

100. A person required to produce an instrument for inspection under the Act shall produce the instrument to the Registrar within such period as the Registrar may specify in writing to that person. Production of document for inspection

101.(1) Every instrument registered or noted on the register shall be copied, microfilmed or stored by any method for the purpose of preserving the records of the Registry. Storage of instruments

(2) The Registrar may forward any instrument, whether registered or not, to be stored in the Kenya National Archives and Documentation Service established under the Public Archives and Documentation Service Act, or in any relevant Government department. Cap. 19

102.(1) Where consideration is expressed in an instrument to have been paid to any party, the execution of the instrument by that party shall imply an acknowledgment of the receipt of such consideration.

Consideration

(2) Where an approved prescribed form expresses the consideration for a transaction in a particular manner, the expression of consideration in any other manner, or the omission to express any consideration at all, shall not constitute a substantial departure from the approved prescribed form.
